"The great thing in this world is not so much where we are,

But in what direction we are moving."

O. M. Holmes

but little When you give of your

It is when you give of yourself
That you truly give.

Our yesterdays follow us; they constitute our life, and they give character and force and meaning to our present deeds.

Take Time

Take time to work . . . it's the one way street to success

Take time to think . . . thought distinguishes humanity.

Take time to play . . . it's the joy of a youthful mind and body.

Take time to read . . . it enriches us.

Take time to pray . . . it's a sign of humility.

Take time to help family and friends . . . they are our happiness

Take time to dream . . . it hitches your soul to the stars.

Take time to laugh . . . for laughter lifts cares.

Take time to love . . . for love is the meaning of life.

Katherine Davis

Life is full of memories
as time rolls on its way,
And the present shall become a memory, too, someday.

Time . . .

Activities . . . Togetherness . . . Friendship . . . Memories . . .

There's a long, long road a-winding through the happy yesterdays,
As I find myself a-dreaming of those cherished bygone days.

Time

Is

Transition

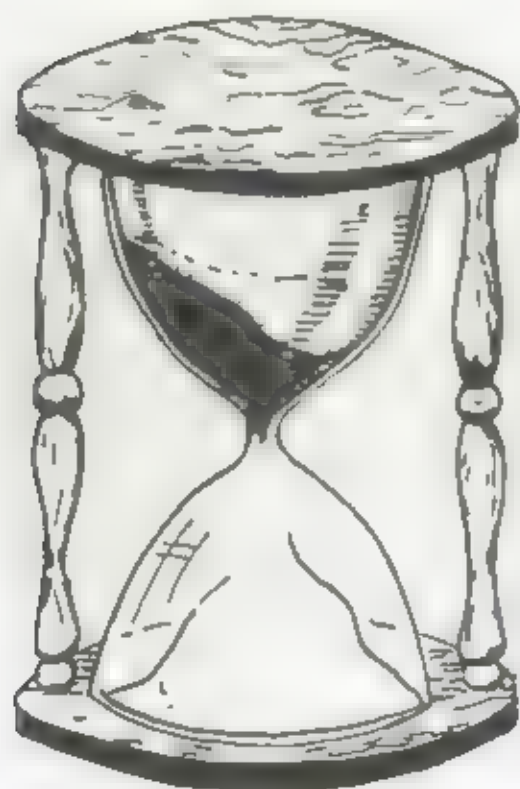

A Memorial . . .

To those who have given their lives in fighting for a cause.

If I should die
let it be in peace.
For I want to hear silence sing of God.

Graduating---

A senior at last . . .

I look back at my high school life,
Realizing that it is rapidly ending.
Months shrink to weeks and days.
Eagerness mingled with fear,
Fear of an uncertain future.

We have walked together as a class,
Finding each other and ourselves
During three years.

We have found good and bad,
And know where we are Although some of us do not know why.
Now all of us,

The familiar faces, walk away,
Each seeking his own path,
Each to find his own tomorrow.

Standing tall, we walk our last steps Together . . . to graduation.
I am leaving.

NEE

Growing -

Some older, some wiser,
 Some confused about life,
 We, the juniors, find new answers,
 Only to attain new responsibilities.
 We develop as a group,
 Growing to be individuals
 With a common spirit in our school.
 Interest grows wider and deeper . . .
 We know next year will be "our" year,
 Our last year to make it what we will.

Beginning -

Our sophomore year presents new challenges

Inexperienced, unsure, but enthusiastic,

We follow the upper classmen.

We ask why and begin to discover.

We learn and experience,

Living on wishes and hopes,

More than achievements,

Planning on years to come.

There is time.

Sharing - Giving

Imparting knowledge is only lighting other men's candles at our lamp, without depriving ourselves of any flame.

The world abounds with those who deride,
and call your efforts vain.
Few are those who are glad you tried,
and will urge you to try again.
Few will help when your step is unsure,
and urge you to find your own way,
Standing by you and for you,
whatever you do,
and listening to all that you say, Through three years of learning and adjusting to life, we were lucky to have found our share.
To those who gave of themselves
to us,
Thank-you for just being there.

Competing -

Finding oneself through the self-discipline of forcing one's body beyond its usual limits.

Learning that pride is learned by doing one's best - even when the opponent does better;

And learning that sports, like life's pressures, peels away the layers of . . .

Society's polite training - and seeing oneself . . .

more realistically than ever before.

Days of hope; days of rejections;
anxiety . . . glory-less for oneself,

More for the team . . . learning to judge oneself by one's own

Strength or weakness.

The numbers of the score do not tell everything.

Even before the final drive,
the surge at the tape,

The last play,

the echo of the Alma Mater,

Knowing one will miss the exhilaration of the game.

It was a good life.

A black and white photograph of a large group of young women, likely a cheer squad, posing in three rows. The front row is kneeling, the middle row is seated, and the back row is standing. They are all wearing light-colored, possibly white, uniforms. The image is grainy and has a vintage feel.

Participating -

Happiness consists in activity:
It is a running stream,
Not a stagnant pool.

You cannot hope
To enjoy the harvest
Without laboring
In the field.

Experience - making all futures, fruits of all pasts.

FINE

Achieving -

Life is neither pain nor pleasure;
It is serious business,
To be entered upon with courage
And in a spirit of self-sacrifice.

True wisdom is to know
What is best worth knowing,
And to do what is best worth doing.

We ought not to judge
Of men's merits
By their qualifications,
But by the use they make of them.

ACTIV

IT IS

Living - Experiencing

Life consists of a full circle of experiences.

Activities provide us with reflections of a carefree past and a foundation for future involvements.

To begin is almost to end.

A day, a week, a year soon become memories of yesterday.

To be able to recall only the teaching and academic goals realized is to miss part of the essence of the years.

To remember only the chance moments and highlights of activities is to seek refuge from reality.

To place both in the proper perspective is to receive the full gift of education.

Stopping By Woods On A Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

YAC Sweetheart Dance

The Sweetheart Dance was held on Friday, March 1st, at the Y. W. C. A. There was no formal dinner, but a delicious lunch was served. The night passed off very pleasantly, and the proceeds were donated to the Y. W. C. A. for the benefit of the St. Vincent's Day.

The best picture of the day was taken by the Y. W. C. A. staff.
